(a) I devise all my clothing, jewelry, personal effects, furniture, furnishings, household effects, automobiles, boats and other tangible personal property (other than money), including insurance policies thereon, in accordance with a written list or memorandum which I may have executed and which is in existence at the time of my death. In the event of any conflict between such memorandum and any subsequent such memorandum, this Will, or any Codicil to this Will, then as to such conflict the provisions of the last executed document shall prevail. My Personal Representative shall conclude no written memorandum or list exists if none is found within 60 days after admission of this Will to probate.

Butler, if my spouse survives me by 30 days. Otherwise, I devise such items to Brenda J. Sommer and Daniel J. Schenck, to be divided among them as they shall agree, or failing such agreement within 60 days after admission of this Will to probate, then as my Personal Representative shall determine. All reasonable costs of safekeeping, insuring and shipping my tangible personal property shall be deemed to be a general estate administration expense.

6.2 Spendthrift Clause. No interest of any beneficiary shall be subject to anticipation or voluntary or involuntary alienation.

6.3 Taxes. I direct that all estate, inheritance or other death taxes (including interest and penalties, if any) payable under the laws of any jurisdiction by reason of my death, whether or not the property generating such taxes passes under this Will or any Codicil (other than any generation-skipping transfer tax, tax on property over which I have a power of appointment, or tax imposed on qualified terminable interest property, which taxes are to be paid according to applicable law or from said property), shall be paid out of my residuary estate, without contribution, reimbursement or apportionment.
